....Respondent(s)

CORUM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M. AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. R.S. Bajaj, Advocate.

M.M. AGGARWAL,J

This is petition against order dated 20.3.2007 passed by Civil Judge(Jr.Divn.), Jalandhar whereby application of the present petitioners U/o 1 Rule 10 CPC for being impleaded as party was dismissed on the ground that the application was filed through one Joga Singh. There was no proper power of attorney in favour of Joga Singh.

Counsel for the petitioner has shown me General Power of Attornies executed by the petitioners in a foreign country in favour of Joga Singh and argues that these were duly presented in the office of Commissioner, Jalandhar and these had been embossed and registered there. Counsel for the petitioner states that necessary stamps of the office had already been affixed and that register number is mentioned on the top of the attorney.

After hearing counsel for the petitioner and going through the record, it is directed that the petitioner shall obtain certificate from the office of Commissioner that these power of attornies are duly registered in that office and then concerned court shall rehear the matter and pass appropriate orders.

With this observation, petition stands disposed of.
